Genealogy of the Collier Family, by C. I. Collier, 1928

APRIL 10, 2016 5:21 PM \ 5 COMMENTS \ BY COLLIERHERITAGE \ EDIT

Here is a neat little booklet done by C. I. Collier of Winder, Georgia in 1928. It is not error-free, as we know today, but was a landmark for its time. The author and J. C. Collier shared information.

5 Thoughts on “Genealogy of the Collier Family, by C. I. Collier, 1928”

I research ancestry for my family and my wife’s family, based on archives of family records in our possession and using Ancestry-dot-com. My mother-in-law is a Collier by birth, a 4th-GGDaughter of Vines Collier, making my wife a 5th-GGDaughter.

I was very pleased to find this site when I did a web search to identify the "Jena Cuthbert Collier, of Barnesville, GA" named as an important source for the C. I. Collier booklet in my wife's records. Charles Ira Collier is a Great-Grandfather to my wife.

With my simple search on titles of the letters generously posted here, I did not find any between J. C. Collier and C. I. Collier, as I hoped to find given that they obviously communicated leading up to the booklet's June 1928 publishing date. Does anyone recall ever seeing any such letters or any mention of C. I. Collier within the J. C. Collier records?

BTW, today for the first time, we enjoyed visiting Barnesville as we drove home from a trip to Florida. We drove around the pair of "Collier Mansions", and visited the impressive Collier lot in Greenwood Cemetery.

Regards,
Peter

Welcome to CHF. We are happy you found our site. Could you share your wife's line?

I do recall seeing mention of such a correspondence. I'll see if I can locate it in the near future.

Glen,

Thanks for your offer to locate any pertinent correspondence – anything you find would be quite interesting to me and my wife's family.

Her line follows C. I. Collier's line as highlighted in his booklet, from Vines Collier & Sarah Williamson >> John Collier & Patsey Gresham >> Charles Pinkney Collier & Sarah Graves >> Minton Monroe Collier & Lucy Emma Griggs >> Charles Ira Collier (booklet author) & Marion Capitola Tarpley >> Herbert Tarpley Collier & Mary Dorothy Misselhorn >> my mother-in-law Collier & her husband >> my wife.

Thanks,

Peter

Glen,

Thanks very much. Interesting these letters are dated only a few days before the date which Charles Ira "signed" his booklet's Preface.

Nice to see C. I. Collier's letter on the Winder Hotel letterhead, which hotel I had heard about from my mother-in-law. My mother-in-law said her mother had told stories about the hotel as the place they would make family visits to her father-in-law and his second wife Ellen.

I note that Elmer Roy Collier included C. I. Collier of Winder, GA among those he credits as sources for his family genealogy booklet.

When Charles Ira Collier died in Winder just-less-than 2-years after completing the booklet, he was buried in Fayette County, Fayetteville City Cemetery, with his first wife Marion Tarpley (my wife's G-Grandmother). Fayette County is where he was born – his father was a second-generation Vines>John-descendant Collier farmer in Fayette.

EX LIBRIS

PREFACE

I have felt for some time that a compilation of a genealogy of the Collier family, insofar as my particular branch of the family is concerned, would be of interest not only to immediate members of the family, but perhaps to their descendants as well.

The material contained in this pamphlet represents an exhaustive search and research of all the records available relating to my branch of the family, and from sources which I believe to be authoritative and correct.

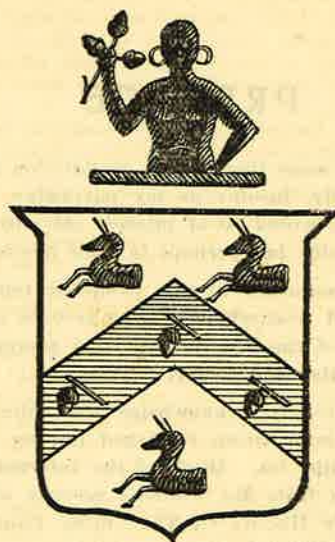

I wish to gratefully acknowledge the valuable assistance rendered, and the information furnished me, by Jena Cuthbert Collier, of Barnesville, Ga. Much of the information contained in this pamphlet is from Mr. Collier's records which form the basis for a complete History Of The Collier Family, which Mr. Collier intends to publish in the near future.

This pamphlet is a private edition, and is intended for distribution only among members of the immediate family.

C. E. COLLIER.

IV. Charles Collier, son of Isaac, Sr., married Judith Harrison and died 1722, will proved Aug. 20, 1722.

Had issue-----

1. Isaac, see No. IV.

2. Thomas.

3. Charles.

4. Elizabeth.

No record of these three.

V. ISAAC COLLIER married Anne, daughter of Thomas Vine, whose will was proved Aug. 15, 1737 and resided at Poto Bello on the York River, mentions daughter Anne Collier and also states that he was son-in-law of Thomas Vines and his wife Mary Hill, and that his mother-in-law, (Mary Hill) was the daughter of Thomas Hill and Eleanor Charles, and that said Hill was the son of John, who was the son of Capt. Thomas Hill by Mary, daughter of Capt. Abraham Pearsey by Francis, widow of Nathaniel West. Isaac Collier removed to Brunswick County Virginia where he died in 1771, will dated July 1771, proved Oct. 28, 1771.

Had issue-----

1. Myhill—married Nov. 26th, 1769, Tabitha, daughter of Benjamin Harrison, Tabitha was sister of Wm. Henry Harrison, 6th President of the United States. Benjamin Harrison was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. After her death he married Tabitha's sister, Judith Harrison. (William & Mary Quarterly, XX P. 195)

2. Vines, see No. V.

3. Thomas, Quartermaster Va. State Regiment May 1778, commissioned 2nd Lieutenant Continental Army, Oct. 22, 1778, served until Jan., 1781 (Heitman's list of Officers Continental Army, p. 131). In 1790 Lieut. Collier was living on the adjoining plantation to his brother, Myhill, in Greenville County, Va. and had in family 4 whites and 8 blacks. The following Colliers were also living in Greenville Co. at that time but it has been impossible to connect them with the branch of the family, viz Myhill, Thomas or Isaac. Their names were Daniel Collier, John Collier, Moses Collier.

(It is thought by the writer composing this article that the Collier families of Moses, John and Daniel were the relations or descendants of John Collier, Jr., who resided in King and Queens County in 1749 and on Sept. 26, 1749 married a girl by the name of Anne Collier who was the daughter of Mrs. Anne Collier. There was also a Thomas Collier in this family and it is thought from this family descended Meridith Collier who removed to North Carolina along about 1755 and who had children by the name of Mary, John and twin boys by name of Meridith and Merrill. Meridith removing to Jackson County, Ga. and later to Dekalb County, Ga. and represented Dekalb County in the Georgia Legislature 1832-40 and Merrill removed to Jackson County, Ga. and was commissioned Lieut. 316th Dist. Company Jackson County, Georgia Militia, Aug. 12, 1812. It appears that Merrill and Meridith are the sons of Joseph Collier above mentioned who removed from Virginia to South Carolina near the Georgia line just after the Revolutionary War. From this branch of the Collier family sprang the Colliers of Atlanta, Ga. viz. Judge John Collier, Chas. A. Collier, Mrs. Dr. Floyd W. McRae) etc.

4. Charles married Susannah, daughter of William Smith. He was Lieut. and Capt. Va. State Regt. 1771-1781.

5. Isaac.

6. Elizabeth Smith.

7. Judith Collier married James Hicks of Brunswick Co., Va. (See VII).

8. Anne married April 28th, 1730, Ephraim Parham.

VI. Judith Collier, (daughter of Isaac Collier of Poto Bello whose will was proved on Aug. 15, 1773), who married James Hicks of Brunswick County, Va. had a daughter, Ann Vines Hicks, who married Dr. Walker of Brunswick County, Va., who was a surgeon in the U. S. Army in 1812.

(William & Mary Quarterly XX p. 196).

(Statement concerning the branch of the Virginia Colliers which appeared to be connected with the Collier family in this genealogy and from which a portion of the Georgia Colliers descended.)

MRS. ANN VINES HICKS WALKER, above mentioned, was living during the year 1860 at the age of 94 years near Diamond Grove in Brunswick County, Va. She was a paternal aunt of R. A. Hardaway of Tuscaloosa, Ala., and the above facts were given out by him in a statement that he made at Tuscaloosa on April 3, 1886. Mr. Hardaway visited her home in Virginia at that time and Mrs. Ann Vine Hicks Walker stated to him that she was the niece of Cornelius Collier of Yorktown, Va., that her mother was Judith Collier and that her two uncles or the two brothers of her mother, Judith Collier, were officers in the regiment of which Lawrence Washington was Capt. at Porto Bello near Darien. In the expedition of 1740-42 under Admiral Vernon and Gen. Wentworth, Lawrence Washington named his estate on the Potomac Mt. Vernon and the Colliers named their home on the North River Porto Bello. There is such a place above Williamsburg on the river. Mrs. Ann Vines Hicks Walker said she had four brothers who were officers in the Continental Army in 1776 and two of them were captured at Nash's defeat at the Battle of Brier Creek, Burke County, Ga., where the Continentals alone made any stand. Mrs. Walker's husband, Dr. Wm. Walker, was a well known surgeon in the U. S. Army in 1812 as you will note in above paragraph VI.

(The above is given merely as a historical event).

VII. VINES COLLIER, son of Isaac Collier and Anne Vines, came from Va. to Ga. Before coming to Ga. served as ensign and Lieut. in the French and Indian War and was in the expedition at Ft. Duquesne (Pittsburg). He married in Brunswick Co., Va., about 1760 Sarah Elizabeth, daughter of Benj. Williamson and removed with his family to Wilkes County, Ga. about 1780 and later to Oglethorpe Co. where he died in Sept. 1795. He was buried at Old Salem Church in Oglethorpe County, Ga., 6 miles southeast of Lexington. His wife's name was Sarah.

Had 13 children, viz:-----

1. Mary (Polly) born 1760, married John H. Owens, son of Glennie in 1803, and lived and died in Monroe County, Ga. (Now Lamar) near Barnesville.
2. Elizabeth, born 1761, married Rev. Thos. Dunn, a Methodist preacher, she died 1840.
3. Sarah, born 1763, married Harrison King Smith in 1804.
4. Isaac, born 1785, was member of Ga. Legislature and State Senate, (see IV).
5. Anne (Nancy) born 1767, married first, John Hardeman and second Georgie Menefee, (See V).
6. Thomas, born 1771 was living in Columbia County, Ga., in 1792 and was a J. P.
7. JOHN, born 1773, married Patsey Gresham, daughter of Edward Powell in 1795. (See VII).
8. William, born 1775, married Sally Powell in 1801 (See VIII).
9. Vines, born 1777, married Dorothy Raffety in 1802. (See II).
10. Benjamin, born 1779, Judge of Crawford County, married Ann (Polly) Howard in 1805. (See X).
11. Williamson, born 1781, married Jemena Powell in 1803. (See XI).
12. Robert, born 1783, married Martha Booker of Putnam County on May 1, 1806, removed to Upson County, Ga., near The Rock.
13. Cuthbert, born 1785, married Nancy Dickee 1803 and removed to Monroe County, Ga. (See XIII).

(Below you will find as near as can be ascertained at the present time, viz., Dec. 1924, where the descendants of the above members of the Vines Collier's family located. Vines Collier received his name from the family of his mother's people, viz. Thomas Vines of Virginia.)

I. Mary (Polly) Collier who married John H. Owens, son of Glennie Owens, in 1803 removed to Monroe County, Ga. 3 or 4 miles South of Barnesville and settled on the highway running from Barnesville to Macon and from this family sprang the Owens family of Monroe County, many of whom are living in the County at this time, Dec. 1924.

II. Elizabeth Collier who married Rev. Thomas Dunn, a Methodist Preacher and who died in 1840 had the following children: Ishmeal, John Vines, Thomas, Nancy who married Kener, Priscilla who married Bell, Sarah who married Willis A. Jordan, Mary who married Daniel, Drewery who was killed by Dennie and left a child named William Thomas.

III. Sarah born 1783 and who married Harrison King Smith in 1804 evidently settled around Dekalb County as they had a daughter named Serena who married George Logan of Dekalb County and another daughter who married Ellington of Dekalb County and another daughter Elizabeth who married-----

-----who moved to Columbus, Ga., and three sons, John, Harrison and Charles, no record of his marriage. It appears that Harrison Smith, above mentioned, married Elizabeth, daughter of John Hardeman and Nancy Collier.

IV. Isaac who was born in Brunswick County, Va. in 1765 removed to Georgia with his father, Vines Collier, and settled in Oglethorpe County, where he married Elizabeth, daughter of Chas. Smith, and had the following children: Charles, Vines, William, Cuthbert, Rebecca, Elizabeth, Nancy and Susannah. He was clerk of the Court of Oglethorpe County and also a member of the Georgia Legislature H. R. 1830-31, also elected to Georgia State Senate 1832-33. It appears that some members of descendants of his family removed to West Upson, Talbot, Meriwether Counties, etc. Mrs. Rebecca Ann Collier Mills, living at Thomaston, Ga., in 1924, appears to be the daughter of Charles Vines Collier who was the son of Isaac, above mentioned.

It appears from the records in the Court House at Thomaston, Upson County, Georgia, that Isaac Collier moved from Oglethorpe County over to Upson (evidently following his brothers, Robert and Williamson) on or about the year 1830-32; and in the Ordinary's Office it appears that he married a second time Elizabeth McMurray on the 7th of March, 1840 and the ceremony was performed by Jacob King, M. G. Later he died and his will was probated in Upson County, Georgia, on Sept. 4, 1848. It appears that he had a large amount of property, Negro slaves, etc., and had one peculiar clause in his will which was as follows: It was his opinion that slaves should be treated humanely and it was his desire that none of his negroes should fall into the hands of two of his sons-in-law, Henry Howard and M. D. F. Beall, as he thought they would not treat them humanely. This will was probated before William A. Cobb, Ordinary of Upson County in 1848 and this is the same Cobb family for whom Efford Cobb Collier was named who was a son of Robert, and in 1857 moved to Cass County Texas. The Cobb family of Upson County at that time were very influential. Later the widow of Isaac Collier, Sr., Elizabeth M., made her will, which was probated on Sept. 13, 1851. She naming her friend, Obediah C. Gibson, and Simeon Rogers, as executors. The will was written on Dec. 20, 1850. This Isaac Collier had a good many children who had the following names: Charles—Vines—Elizabeth who married Henry Howard—Rebecca who married Beal—Cuthbert S.—Nathaniel—William Peter—Sarah—Edna who married a Matthews, etc.

The above Isaac Collier must have moved to Upson County from Oglethorpe along about 1832 as the records show that he sold a plantation to a Thomas Matthews along about 1835, Deeb Book, D, Page 57. He made a lot of real estate transactions between that time and the date of his death in the Summer of 1848.

The estate of Isaac Collier was sold by his sons who were executors, Charles Vines and Outhbert S. to M. H. Sandwich, July 3, 1849, Book G, Page 143.

V. Anne (Nancy) born 1767 in Brunswick County, Va. married John Hardeman about 1790 who was a son of John Hardeman of Gilford Co., N. C. John Hardeman had a sister by the name of Easter who married John Everett. They had the following children: Betty who married Harrison Smith, Thomas, John who moved to Memphis, Tenn., Robert Vines, Benjamin F., Martha who was born after the death of John Hardeman and married Lawhorn, of Rome, Ga. After John Hardeman's death his widow, Anne (Nancy) married George Menafee of Palmetto who had children by the name of Willis and others. Willis resided at Palmetto and raised a large family from whom perhaps Mrs. Wm. Byrd Tate living at about Marietta, Ga., in 1925 descended.

Thomas Hardeman, a member of Congress and also Postmaster at Macon, Ga., was a descendant of John Hardeman and Anne Collier.

VI. Thomas Collier, son of Vines was living in Columbia County, Ga., in 1792, the records are not very complete regarding his after life. He was born in 1771 in Brunswick Co., Va., and evidently had a son by the name of Dr. William Collier who resided in Columbia County, Ga., who read medicine in Philadelphia under Dr. Rush and in 1811 married Sarah Germany of Columbia County. This Dr. Collier died in 1825. There was a Thomas Collier as member of the Georgia Legislature H. R. from Pulaski County in 1837-38-39 who was evidently a grandson of the Thomas Collier who resided in Columbia County in 1792. Thomas, subject of this sketch, died in 1826 and Benjamin Collier, his brother, administered on his estate.

VII. JOHN COLLIER who was born also in Brunswick County, Va., in 1773 came from Va. to Oglethorpe County with his father, Vines, about 1780. He was the first Tax Collector of Oglethorpe County, Ga. Married Patsey Gresham in 1795 who was a daughter of John Gresham. John Collier was appointed Capt. of the 345th District Company, Pulaski County, on June 30, 1812 and resigned August 11, 1813.

VIII. William, also son of Vines, born in 1775, Brunswick County, Va., came with his father to Georgia and married Sallie Powell in 1801. She was a daughter of Edward and Mary Powell. She had a sister, Rebecca, who married Vines Smith and a sister named Jemena who married Williamson Collier. It is not clear at this time what became of William's family after they left Oglethorpe County. It may come out in the records, to be compiled later.

IX. Vines Collier born 1777 in Brunswick County, Va. and son of Vines also came with his father from Brunswick County, Va., and married Dorothy Raffety in 1802 and died in Wilkes County, Ga. They evidently had no children.

X. Benjamin Collier, also son of Vines, born in 1779 is said to have been Judge of Crawford County, Ga., yet some of the records show that perhaps he moved to Early County. Benjamin was named for his mother's father, Benjamin Williamson of Va. He married Ann (Polly) Howard in 1805 and it seems died in 1830 and in his will mentioned the following legatees: Robert, Williams, Cuthbert, Williamson, Vines, Isaac, Benjamin, John H. Owens, Harrison King Smith, Thomas Dunn, Thomas G. Jones, Benj. F. Hardeman, Geo. Menafee.

XI. Williamson Collier, likewise son of Vines, was born in Oglethorpe County, Ga. in 1781, he married Jemena Powell in 1803, who was a sister of Sallie Powell who married William Collier. Williamson had a son by the name of William who removed to Upson and Monroe County, Ga., near The Rock and Barnesville and died around 1872 and had some grandchildren who were raised in this section and resided and died in Pike County by the name of Vines Hicks who resided at Meansville and Greene Hardeway who resided at Piedmont, Ga. Williamson's family will be connected up a little later on.

XII. Robert, son of Vines, was born in Oglethorpe County, Ga. Nov. 13, 1783.

He married Martha Marshall Booker of Putnam County, May 1, 1806. Robert moved in early life about 1820 to 24 to Upson County, Ga., and settled three miles South of The Rock and died in 1850 and is buried on the old Collier plantation which is still in the family, has never been out of the family, and is owned by the heirs of Robert Marshall Collier 2nd, who died in Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 26, 1924. Martha Marshall Booker died 1876 and is buried by the side of her husband on the old plantation. He was a large planter and large slave owner and represented Upson County in the Georgia Legislature H. R. 4 terms, viz. 1826-27-35-36. In 1827 he was opposed by Joseph Sturgess and in some way Sturgess was declared elected but his seat was contested and Sturgess was unseated on Nov. 21st and Robert Collier was seated Nov. 22, 1827. He was also elected a State Senator from Upson in 1841. He raised a large family which will come out later. Robert's last words when he died were, "I am done with the world" which appears in his family Bible now in possession of his great-grandson, Jena Cuthbert Collier, of Barnesville, Ga. Many of the descendants of his slaves were still residing in 1924 at the old Collier homestead in Upson County.

XIII. Cuthbert Collier, also son of Vines, born 1785 in Oglethorpe County, Ga. removed to Monroe County, Ga. and raised a large family, many of the descendants are still in Monroe living around Collier's Station. Collier's Station was named for Cuthbert Collier, or Outty as he was called at that time. John Marlin Collier was his son but at this writing it has been impossible to connect up all of the branches of his family as there appears to have been possibly two branches of the Collier family that came to Monroe County in the early eighteenth century.
